Role in the County's Strategic Goals

- We aspire to have the county agencies aware of the community guidelines and present them to the Planners/Developers as part of the permit process.
- Encourage economic development to enable a prosperous and vibrant community
- The Committee is Dedicated to Good Governance – achieving the best possible process for making & implementing decisions; characterized by honesty, integrity, accountability, transparency, responsiveness, equitability, inclusion, effectiveness, efficiency and following the rule of law
- We Promote Healthy Communities – improved health, well-being and self-sufficiency of El Dorado and the Diamond Springs communities, residents and visitors
- We Strive to Protect and Enhance Infrastructure – to provide, operate and maintain our infrastructure, public facilities and associated services that protect our community, environment and economic well-being
- Promote Public Safety – through guidance in appropriate community development.

Thank you
