The required 5-year update to the Housing Element of the General Plan is due in 2013. Early information regarding Regional Housing Needs Allocation (RHNA) and the impact on the County's housing requirements from new State laws and census data is beginning to be released. The Housing Element requires an independent approval by the state and therefore necessitates this task to begin early 2012. A final approved Housing Element found to be in compliance with State Law is due no later than October 2013.

Resolution of Intention requires County Counsel review and approval – initials confirm approval.
