Summary of qualifications I graduated from El Dorado high School in 2005. I attended some college however, full time employment interested me more. I started working for El Dorado County Probation in 2007. I began my career working at the Juvenile Treatment Center in South Lake Tahoe. I transferred to the Juvenile Hall in Placerville where I promoted to Supervisor. The Juvenile Hall closed and I transferred to the field office in Shingle Springs. I am currently in the Juvenile Court Unit, a Juvenile Court Officer. I work closely with youth and their families to help correct behaviors, address trauma and educate and establish a healthier and happy life. Most families I work with suffer from generational trauma and abuse. It is mandatory that I attend, annually, 24 hours of Standards and Training for Corrections (STC.) I often sign up for webinars and trainings outside of the required training in order to better educate myself. Here are a list of recent trainings and upcoming trainings I am registered for: Creating and Building an Effective Case Plan Treatment and Interventions and Measuring Success Improving the Outcomes and Supervision of Justice Involved Individuals Moral Reconation Therapy (MRT) CSEC Youth (Trauma Informed Practices) Winning the Battle (Pain Behind the Badge) I am a mother of three amazing child, two girls and one boy. They teach me the most!

Why do you seek appointment? I am seeking this appointment simply to be part of the team to help prevent abuse. It saddens me that abuse a generational problem and I want to help educate new mom's and dad's about the cycle so they stop it. No child should suffer abuse and all parents need to be offered support and the tools to be better.
Additional Information Although I do not have a degree, I am interested in learning more about behavior change, the brain, therapy and to better my self as a person in general. I have listened to the following books on audible books: Dopamine Nation Association for Child and Adolescent Mental Health (Podcast) Dare to Lead The Anatomy of Peace The Outward Mindset Not a Life Coach The Available Parent The Drama of the Gifted Child The Body Never Lies Calmer, Easier, Happier Parent Leadership and Self-Deception I'm Fine...and Other Lies How Not to Hate Your Husband After Kids In my library to read/ listen: Greenlights The Teenage Brain The Grown-Up's Guide to Teenage Humans Parenting the New Teen in the Age of Anxiety Ending the Parent-Teen Control Battle
