

Older Americans Month

May 2010

AgeStrong! LiveLong!

The El Dorado County Commission on Aging wishes to congratulate you for being among the nominees for the 2010 "Senior of the Year" award.

Carlene Hosea

For your unselfish contribution to many volunteer organizations, from children's groups to senior groups, you demonstrate the difference that volunteering can make.

Older Americans Month

May 2010

AgeStrong! LiveLong!

The El Dorado County Commission on Aging wishes to congratulate you for being among the nominees for the 2010 "Senior of the Year" award.

Harry and Mary Ann Harper

For sharing your time and talents with community organizations, we applaud your excellent service and willingness to share with others in the community.

Older Americans Month

May 2010

AgeStrong! LiveLong!

The El Dorado County Commission on Aging wishes to congratulate you for being among the nominees for the 2010 "Senior of the Year" award.

Evelyn and Bernie Richter

Active as Master Gardeners and Master Food Preservers, while teaching and assisting others, you are a kind and giving couple.

Older Americans Month

May 2010

AgeStrong! LiveLong!

The El Dorado County Commission on Aging wishes to congratulate you for being among the nominees for the 2010 "Senior of the Year" award.

Raelene Nunn

Serving as a counselor for HICAP, and sharing your time and talent with school children, you demonstrate that serving others in your community is an important part of your life.

Older Americans Month

May 2010

AgeStrong! LiveLong!

The El Dorado County Commission on Aging wishes to congratulate you for being among the nominees for the 2010 "Senior of the Year" award.

Joyce Vorpahl

Serving others at Marshall Hospital, as well as volunteering for MORE, and assisting your neighbors, you are an inspiration for all to follow.

Older Americans Month

May 2010

AgeStrong! LiveLong!

The El Dorado County Commission on Aging wishes to congratulate you for being among the nominees for the 2010 "Senior of the Year" award.

Rodney Key

Mentoring the youth in our community, and visiting homebound seniors, you truly care about people and are an advocate with a heart of gold.

Older Americans Month

May 2010

AgeStrong! LiveLong!

The El Dorado County Commission on Aging wishes to congratulate you for being among the nominees for the 2010 "Senior of the Year" award.

Elarene (Ellie) Malone

Sharing your love of art with others, and being a "community-minded" caring person makes you a model and inspiration for all to follow.

Older Americans Month

May 2010

AgeStrong! LiveLong!

The El Dorado County Commission on Aging wishes to congratulate you for being among the nominees for the 2010 "Senior of the Year" award.

Bernell (Bernie) Dowse

Volunteering to share your knowledge of local history, we recognize your community-wide efforts to assist others in our community.

Older Americans Month

May 2010

AgeStrong! LiveLong!

The El Dorado County Commission on Aging wishes to congratulate you for being among the nominees for the 2010 "Senior of the Year" award.

Tom and Carol Waller

Serving others in your church and community with your time and talents, you assist others with a great attitude and a big smile!

Older Americans Month

May 2010

AgeStrong! LiveLong!

The El Dorado County Commission on Aging wishes to congratulate you for being among the nominees for the 2010 "Senior of the Year" award.

Yvonne Griffin

A willing and helpful volunteer for the Senior Nutrition Program, teaching and coordinating classes and activities for seniors makes you one amazing volunteer!

Older Americans Month

May 2010

AgeStrong! LiveLong!

The El Dorado County Commission on Aging wishes to congratulate you for being among the nominees for the 2010 "Senior of the Year" award.

Tommy Hawke

Performing with the Buckboard Bunch at community functions and sharing your time and talent with others, make you a role model of diligence and kindness.