

Dear Sheriff Jeff Leikauf,

Firstly I would like to apologize for accidentally making false statements on my application. The verbiage I remember on the form was "arrested" but I was "detained". I was told and thought that was different but I may have been ill informed.

I am a ~~survivor~~ survivor of domestic violence and have suffered a broken jaw, knocked out teeth, and a variety of bruises and sprains. I am fighting very hard to get my life back. I beg you to reconsider the denial of this permit.

This job could change my life. Save me from eviction. Pay for me to repair my teeth. I was not willfully trying to lie, but I guess I misunderstood the difference. I have obtained a certificate of detention which I have included with this letter.

Again I apologize and plead
f to make a case for myself.

Thank you.

DETENTION CERTIFICATE

Penal Code section 849 provides:

- (a) When an arrest is made without a warrant by a peace officer or private person, the person arrested, if not otherwise released, shall, without unnecessary delay, be taken before the nearest or most accessible magistrate in the county in which the offense is triable, and a complaint stating the charge against the arrested person shall be laid before the magistrate.
- (b) A peace officer may release from custody, instead of taking the person before a magistrate, a person arrested without a warrant in the following circumstances:
  - (1) The officer is satisfied that there are insufficient grounds for making a criminal complaint against the person arrested.
  - (2) The person arrested was arrested for intoxication only, and no further proceedings are desirable.
  - (3) The person was arrested only for being under the influence of a controlled substance or drug and the person is delivered to a facility or hospital for treatment and no further proceedings are desirable.
  - (4) The person was arrested for driving under the influence of alcohol or drugs and the person is delivered to a hospital for medical treatment that prohibits immediate delivery before a magistrate.
  - (5) The person was arrested and subsequently delivered to a hospital or other urgent care facility, including, but not limited to, a facility for the treatment of co-occurring substance use disorders, for mental health evaluation and treatment, and no further proceedings are desirable.
- (c) The record of arrest of a person released pursuant to paragraphs (1), (3), or (5) of subdivision (b) shall include a record of release. Thereafter, the arrest shall not be deemed an arrest, but a detention only.

Penal Code section 849.5 provides:

In any case in which a person is arrested and released and no accusatory pleading is filed charging him with an offense, any record of arrest of the person shall include a record of release. Thereafter, the arrest shall not be deemed an arrest, but a detention only.

Penal Code section 851.6 provides, in part:

- (a) In any case in which a person is arrested and released pursuant to paragraph (1), (3), or (5) of subdivision (b) of Section 849, the person shall be issued a certificate, signed by the releasing officer or his superior officer, describing the action as a detention.
- (b) In any case in which a person is arrested and released and an accusatory pleading is not filed charging him or her with an offense, the person shall be issued a certificate by the law enforcement agency which arrested him or her describing the action as a detention.
- (c) The Attorney General shall prescribe the form and content of the certificate.
- (d) Any reference to the action as an arrest shall be deleted from the arrest records of the arresting agency and of the Department of Justice. Thereafter, any record of the action shall refer to it as a detention.
