PROTOCOLS FOR PUBLIC COMMENT

Public comment will be received at designated periods as called by the Council Chair.

Except with the consent of the Council, individuals shall be allowed to speak to an item only once. Matters not on the agenda may be addressed by the general public during Open Forum. Comments during Open Forum are limited to three minutes per person. The Council reserves the right to waive said rules by a majority vote. Open Forum is for comment only. No action will be taken on these items unless they are scheduled on a future agenda.

Public testimony will be received on each agenda item as it is called. Individuals will have three minutes to address the Council.

Upon completion of public comment on an agenda item, the matter shall be returned to the Council for deliberation. Members of the public shall not be entitled to participate in that deliberation, or be present at the podium during such deliberation, except at the invitation of the Council for a point of clarification or question by the Council.

Individual Council members may ask clarifying questions but will not engage in substantive dialogue with persons providing input to the Council.

If a person providing input to the Council creates a disruption by refusing to follow Council guidelines, the Council Chair may take the following actions:

Step 1. Request the person adhere to Council guidelines. If the person refuses, the Council Chair may turn off the speaker's microphone.

Step 2. If the disruption continues, the Council Chair may order a recess of the Council meeting.

Step 3. If the disruption continues, the Council Chair may order the removal of the person from the Council meeting.
