To: aaron.mount@edcgov.us

Dear Aaron Mount:

We are Buddhists of Dieu Nhan Meditation Center, my wife and I have been coming to this center to study sutras and practice meditation almost every Sunday for years. This is the only meditation center in Sacramento area.

The facilities of this meditation center are too old and falling down, it need to be rebuilt.

We know that the public hearing for Special Use Permit of the meditation center will be held on May 26, 2016; however, we cannot attend the hearing because we will be out of town.

We are writing this letter to strongly support the project.

Thank you

Re: Special Use Permit S13-0007
Dieu Nhan Buddhist Convert & Meditation Center

Dear Commissioners,

I am writing in support of approving the Special Use Permit for Dieu Nhan. My Mom and I take Sunday classes there for over a year. Our meditation and lecture sessions are invaluable to our daily life. They help tremendously in showing us how to be peaceful with ourselves and compassionate with others.

Regarding potential environmental impact, Dieu Nhan was carefully developed to blend in with the surrounding environment beautifully. The nuns always teach and practice a minimalist way of life with care for the environment and all living things.

I believe Dieu Nhan will always be carefully developed with potential environmental impact in mind. Also, its intellectual gift to the lay meditation practitioners is invaluable.

Sincerely,

MinhQuan Phan
