

Proclamation of the Board of Supervisors of the County of El Dorado

Recognizing the community of Cameron Park on their 50th Anniversary

WHEREAS, The development of Cameron Park was a dream of a few early entrepreneurs in the 1960s who envisioned a special place to live above the fog and below the snow; and

WHEREAS, nestled in the foothills under a canopy of majestic oaks, Cameron Park has grown into a unique community of homes, schools, churches, golf course, a community lake and an airport where pilots taxi their planes off the runway into their garage; and

WHEREAS, Cameron Park has retained its small town friendliness promoting an atmosphere where families grow up together, walking to schools in their neighborhoods and enjoying recreational sports in the parks nearby; and

WHEREAS, Cameron Park has an award winning library that serves as a comfortable meeting place for learning and enjoyment by all; and

WHEREAS, Cameron Park Community Services District worked diligently to deliver a beautiful new community center, competition size pool and multi-purpose gym; and safeguards the community by providing outstanding Fire and Emergency Services; and

WHEREAS, Cameron Park Lake is a summer paradise where families spend the day swimming in the lagoon, picnicking under the shade trees or enjoying a walk around the lake.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT PROCLAIMED, the Board of Supervisors of the County of El Dorado does recognize and congratulate the community of Cameron Park on this 50th year anniversary.

Passed and adopted by the Board of Supervisors of the County of El Dorado at a regular meeting, held the 9th day of August, 2011.

Raymond J. Nutting, Chairman
