SHERIFF JEFF NEVES

MEMORANDUM

TO: Board of Supervisors

FROM: Jeff Neves, Sheriff - Coroner - Public Administrator

SUBJECT: Proposed Parking Ordinance-Cameron Park Court

DATE: 7/26/2006

Recommendation:

The Sheriff's Department is requesting the Board approve the proposed county ordinances which restricts public parking at the Cameron Park Courthouse during business hours (0730-1800, excluding weekends & court holidays) to employees and persons engaged in court business. These ordinances are new and designated 10.12.095, 10.12.105, 10.12.115 and 10.12.125. Associated ordinances 10.12.130 and 10.12.140 have been amended to incorporate reference to the new ordinance.

The proposed ordinances and associated amendments have been reviewed and approved by County Counsel.

Reason for Recommendation:

Court security staff is concered that cars, not associated with court business are parked in the Cameron Park Court parking lot often times for days. On days when juries are summoned, the available parking spaces are depleted, forcing the jurors and court staff to park on Meder Rd. and surrounding side streets. For persons parking on the side streets, access to the court requires them to cross Meder Rd. which is a busy street and has no sidewalks. In order to address the shortage of parking spaces, court and sheriff's staff feel the appropriate remedy is to restrict the entire parking lot rather than designated parking spaces for employees. The restrictions will only apply during business hours excluding weekends and court holidays.

Fiscal Impact:

No fiscal impact.

Action to be Taken Following Approval:

Adopt and incorporate ordinances into county code. Sheriff's staff will ensure proper signage is in place prior to enforcement action.
