Hi, I would like to express my displeasure with the way the resignation of Mr. King has been handled by the CSD and now onto the BoS. He resigned. The next viable candidate in line should be appointed, Mr. Steve Gutierrez. A special election is indeed a waste of taxpayer money. The time spent on all recent agendas on this is an abomination. This town and county certainly have more important things to do than continue to abuse taxpayer dollars and assert government authority over a situation that should have been easily resolved. If this was a corporation and a member of the BoD left in such a manner I can assure you the shenanigans would not have escalated anywhere to this level. Let's run our town and county like a corporation!

Sincerely,

Suzan Webb
