EL DORADO COUNTY
INTERVENTION SERVICES for HIGH RISK YOUTH AND FAMILIES

July 1, 2005 - June 30, ~~2007~~ 2008

PROVIDER: New Morning Youth & Family Services, Inc.

REQUIRED SERVICES:

Provide prevention and intervention counseling to those youth and their families who have been identified as being at risk of becoming involved in the juvenile justice system, and to prevent future involvement in the juvenile justice system, Child Protective Services, and other related systems. Highest service priority will be given to referrals made by the Student Attendance Review Board (SARB), and the Children=s Resource Team (CRT). Highest service priority is defined as timely provision of services in accordance with a defined service plan. Prevention and intervention services consist of:

1. Providing case management for any SARB and CRT referral whose primary need is counseling.
2. Participating on the case management team when the case is assigned to another agency.
3. Assigning a representative to SARB - Western Slope.
4. Coordinating services based on interagency developed service plans.
5. Establishing protocols with other assigned agencies to ensure clients are appropriately referred and information is transferred.
6. Identifying criteria with partner agencies to help define youth=s chances for success as a consequence of receiving counseling services.
