Kim May, from the Food Bank of El Dorado, reported that the organization has been located in Cameron Park for 25 years as a nonprofit and currently partners with 35 different agencies. These agencies span from El Dorado Hills to South Lake Tahoe, supporting food distribution efforts across the region. May reported that the Food Bank is now serving approximately 12,000 individuals per month through its distribution programs. In addition to general food assistance, the Food Bank offers specialized programs such as Elder Outreach and No Vet Goes Hungry. The No Vet Goes Hungry program serves 70 to 75 veterans each month, providing them with boxes of food that include protein, dairy, produce, and nonperishable items. Balbuena reported that Guns Up! takes veterans on waterfowl hunting trips and has been actively working with them for the past four years. They are currently supporting seven veterans, most of whom were referred by friends or family members. The organization utilizes several different properties for their hunts and provides gear to clients who do not have their own equipment. Guns Up! is seeking to collaborate with the VA TOT to secure funding that would enable more disabled veterans to participate in hunts and other outdoor activities.

AGENDA ITEMS25-1371

Commission to discuss and vote on changes to the previously approved September 11, 2025 Veterans Affairs Commission (VAC) Meeting Date.

Commissioner Millham reported that South Lake Tahoe holds community ceremonies every September 11th, Veterans Day, and Memorial Day. These events begin at 11:00 AM and typically draw around 150 attendees at the American Legion Post. Millham expressed concern about scheduling the VAC meeting on September 11th, suggesting that the meeting be postponed by a week to avoid conflicting with ceremonies in South Lake Tahoe and other locations. Commissioner Reynolds noted that he, Vice Chair Commissioner Smith, Veterans Service Officer Brown, and Veterans Service Office Administrative Technician Courtney Frame had met earlier that morning to discuss the September 11th VAC meeting date. During that meeting, they agreed to proceed with the scheduled date due to conflicts that would arise from rescheduling. Reynolds acknowledged that September 11th is not a federal holiday but recommended observing a moment of silence to honor the significance of the day. Commissioner Culver supported keeping the original date, citing scheduling conflicts with the South Lake Tahoe Health and Human Services Agency (HHS). Commissioner Smith also agreed, emphasizing the importance of a moment of silence while maintaining the scheduled meeting. Timalynn Jaynes, Assistant Director of Human Services, inquired about the meeting location and whether a quorum would be present. Frame confirmed the meeting would be held at 3368 Sandy Way in the Large Conference Room, and after checking with the Commissioners, verified that a quorum would be met.

A motion to keep the September 11th VAC Meeting as scheduled and have the provision that the VAC hold a moment of silence to recognize the importance of the day was made by Commissioner Culver; seconded by Commissioner Fisher.
