Summary of qualifications Achieving 15 years of government experience across multiple disciplines, including economic, urban, business, community, and housing development, makes me an ideal candidate to serve on the Community and Economic Development Advisory Committee. My educational background in political science, public administration, and law combined with extensive knowledge of working with municipal governments, businesses, and developers makes me a powerful asset to consider in fulfillment of the member at large vacancy. My obtainment of an advanced graduate legal degree offers a strong foundation ensuring the proper interpretation and application of complex local, state, and federal regulations and laws. Experience in the negotiation of complex agreements, land use development, and business attraction, retention, and expansion provides assurances in my ability to serve on the committee.
Affiliations with professional and/or community groups - California Association for Local Economic Development (CALED) - Municipal Management Association of Northern California (MMANC) - International Council of Shopping Centers (ICSC) - Solano Small Business Development Corporation (SBDC) - Solano Economic Development Cooperation (EDC) - Solano Workforce Development Board (WDB) - Green Valley Office Park Association
Why do you seek appointment? EI Dorado County is the best place to live, work, and play. I want to be a part in maintaining this by using my skill set and knowledge in community and economic development to offer the Board of Supervisors recommendations on policies and projects that will maintain fiscal solvency, strengthen and diversify the economic base, and preserve and enhance the quality of life for residents. I believe my education and past experiences in the industry qualify me for this role.
Additional Information Additional areas of expertise include: leading and managing the preparation of an economic development strategic plan that will serve as a road map for the next five-years for the City of Fairfield s Economic Development Division. generating $3.2 million in sale proceeds for the City of Fairfield by negotiating and executing two real estate agreements providing for development of a 162 multi-family mixed income residential project and construction of a full-service hotel and restaurant. The projects will benefit the City by adding affordable housing, creating 70 new jobs, and increasing tax revenue by $500,000 a year. working alongside elected officials and City Managers across the state providing real estate development advisory services as a director for Carpenter/Robbins Commercial Real Estate, Inc. leading the Real Property program for the City of Stockton, which involved administering the management of its real property assets and preparing the Successor Agency Long Range Property Management Plan ultimately giving rise to economic development projects and partnerships.
If known, indicate the member of the Board of Supervisors who will receive a copy of this application (no value entered)
