PROTOCOLS FOR PUBLIC COMMENT

Public comment will be received at designated periods as called by the Commission Chair.

Except with the consent of the Commission, individuals shall be allowed to speak to an item only once.

Matters not on the agenda may be addressed by the general public during Public Forum/Public Comment. Comments during Public Forum/Public Comment are limited to three minutes per person. The Commission reserves the right to waive said rules by a majority vote. Public Forum/Public Comment is for comment only. No action will be taken on these items unless they are scheduled on a future agenda.

Public testimony will be received on each agenda item as it is called. Individuals will have three minutes to address the Commission. Individuals authorized by organizations will have three minutes to present organizational positions and perspectives and may request additional time, up to five minutes. At the discretion of the Commission, time to speak by any individual may be extended.

Upon completion of public comment on an agenda item, the matter shall be returned to the Commission for deliberation. Members of the public shall not be entitled to participate in that deliberation, or be present at the podium during such deliberation, except at the invitation of the Commission for a point of clarification or question by the Commission.

Individual Commission members may ask clarifying questions but will not engage in substantive dialogue with persons providing input to the Commission.

If a person providing input to the Commission creates a disruption by refusing to follow Commission guidelines, the Chair of the Commission may take the following actions:

Step 1. Request the person adhere to the Commission guidelines. If the person refuses, the Chair may ask the Clerk to turn off the speaker's microphone.

Step 2. If the disruption continues, the Chair may order a recess of the Commission meeting.

Step 3. If the disruption continues, the Chair may order the removal of the person from the Commission meeting.

DEPARTMENTAL REPORTS AND COMMUNICATIONS (Planning and Building, Transportation, County Counsel)

Rob Peters, Deputy Director of Planning, provided the Commission an update on the following: 1) the Board of Supervisors approved the Housing Element Update on August 31, 2021; 2) an Appeal was received for the Serrano Village A14 project and the appeal is tentatively scheduled to be heard by the Board of Supervisors on September 28, 2021; 3) tomorrow, September 10, 2021, the Board of Supervisors will hear an item for an Urgency Ordinance in regards to Caldor Fire Resiliency and Rebuilding; and, 4) no items were submitted for the Commission's September 23, 2021 meeting and it will be cancelled.

COMMISSIONERS' REPORTS

[Clerk's Note: AKT/Costco project as stated in Commissioner Reports is in regards to: EDH 52 Commercial Center Project (Planned Development PD15-0001/Rezone Z17-0004/Tentative Parcel Map P17-0007/Conditional Use Permit Revision CUP-R21-0024/Lot Line Adjustment LLA21-0009)]

Commissioner Williams announced that this may be his last Commission meeting. Commissioner Williams expressed that it has been an honor to serve District 4 for the past 6 years and expressed his appreciation and thanks to staff and his fellow Commissioners. Chair Vegna expressed his appreciation for Commissioner Williams' service to the Commission and hopes that he will be able to continue.

Commissioner Ross noted a lot of people in our County are struggling because they have lost their homes to the Caldor fire or are still displaced and noted there are resources available on the County website to help direct the public to help or assistance they may need. Commissioner Ross asked her fellow District 5 residents to please be patient and repopulation will happen once it is safe to do so.

Commissioner Williams questioned staff for confirmation that residents of District 2 should wait at this time in regards to cleanup efforts due to the Caldor fire. Breann Moebius, Deputy County Counsel, noted that the Board of Supervisors are having a Special Meeting tomorrow (September 10, 2021) and noted Environmental Management will be giving an update on these efforts.

Chair Vegna stated that he went to yesterday's (September 8, 2021) scoping meeting for the AKT/Costco project. Chair Vegna acknowledged the sacrifices that our Service Members made who lost their lives in Afghanistan.

Commissioner Clerici questioned the general feel of the scoping meeting for the AKT/Costco project. Chair Vegna noted there was a lot of feedback from the public and some concerns with the project adjoining residential developments.

Commissioner Clerici discussed a friend's personal experience of losing a home to fire, the clean up process, and the patience required for recovery. Commissioner Clerici noted it would be valuable for residents to stay engaged during the process starting with tomorrow's (September 10, 2021) Board of Supervisors meeting.

Commissioner Ross stated the County has an email and a phone number that residents can use to ask questions regarding the Caldor fire. At the end of the meeting, Rob Peters, Deputy Director of Planning, confirmed the email and phone number as: edccaldorrecovery@edcgov.us and 530-621-5101.

PUBLIC FORUM / PUBLIC COMMENT

There was no public comment.
