

OAM 2011

Older Americans:
connecting the community

The El Dorado County Commission on Aging wishes to congratulate you for being among the nominees for the 2011 "Senior of the Year" award

Harry & Iva Heuser

Volunteering tirelessly for the benefit of others by delivering meals, escorting senior tours and providing office support to Community Services, prove that you are excellent examples of model volunteers and you are both an inspiration for all to follow.

OAM 2011

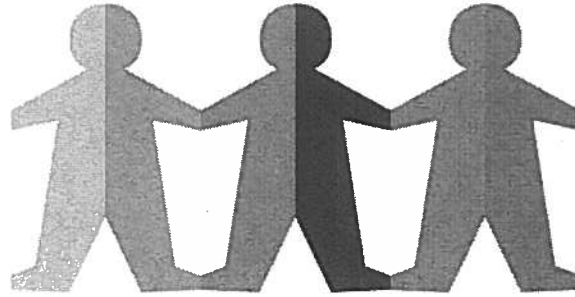

Older Americans:
connecting the community

The El Dorado County Commission on Aging wishes to congratulate you for being among the nominees for the 2011 "Senior of the Year" award

Ellen Yevdakimov

As a dedicated volunteer for YANA, El Dorado Center for the Visually Impaired and other community organizations, you reflect the true meaning of giving to others.

OAM 2011

Older Americans:
connecting the community

The El Dorado County Commission on Aging wishes to congratulate you for being among the nominees for the 2011 "Senior of the Year" award

Yvonne Griffin

We recognize your unfailing commitment to seniors at the Moni Gilmore Senior Center-teaching, serving and tending to the practical needs of seniors and we commend your service .

OAM 2011

Older Americans:
connecting the community

The El Dorado County Commission on Aging wishes to congratulate you for being among the nominees for the 2011 "Senior of the Year" award

Bernell Dowse

Your initiative to advocate for others in the community and to provide for their needs demonstrate that you are a humanitarian and a valuable volunteer in our community.

OAM 2011

Older Americans:
connecting the community

The El Dorado County Commission on Aging wishes to congratulate you for being among the nominees for the 2011 "Senior of the Year" award

Arthur Patterson

A life-long volunteer, your efforts to coordinate MORE events, assist Ride & Shine and your energy to feed those in need show that you are a caring advocate for others.