

- Decide on the Commission's attendance policy
 - At least 3 or more members have missed more than 50% of the 7 DPC Meetings since the Commission was formed in June 2017
 - Each failure to attend, decide and approve via quorum under the Brown Act has delayed all progress by 2-4 months on recommendations from Commission members who physically attend DPC meetings consistently
 - Low attendance is a disservice to the Commission's Mission Statement to help our youth because the Commission cannot properly function without robust participation
- Review progress of DPC Bylaws workgroup to draft based on EDC JJC bylaws and other commissions
