PROGRAM MANAGER – PROTECTIVE SERVICES

DEFINITION & DISTINGUISHING CHARACTERISTICS

DEFINITION:

Under direction, the Program Manager – Protective Services plans, organizes, and directs the operations and functions of a Public Guardian or other Protective Services program.

DISTINGUISHING CHARACTERISTICS:

This classification differs from the next higher level, Deputy Director classification, in that the latter typically has responsibility for multiple programs or functions in a department or for a single program where two or more subordinate levels of supervision exist. In these departments, the Program Manager – Protective Services serves in a first-level managerial capacity.

EXAMPLES OF ESSENTIAL FUNCTIONS (Illustrative Only)

- Manage the daily work activities of the Public Guardian program or other Protective Services program, directly or through subordinate supervisors, by establishing performance levels, communicating goals and performance expectations, and monitoring and reviewing work to ensure conformance to established policies and procedures, and standards for quality and timeliness
- Assess service delivery to communicate findings to upper management, implement changes to improve efficiency and service quality, maximize effectiveness of program operations, and ensure alignment with the agency's mission
- Oversee personnel actions to determine compliance with policies and procedures, and provide guidance to subordinate supervisors regarding personnel matters
- Ensure that programs or work units are staffed with qualified individuals by resolving performance problems, documenting performance according to policy, training and developing staff, and assisting in the selection, hiring, and promotion of staff
- Interpret laws and regulations, including new laws and proposed legislation, to determine relevancy to department operations and services, and assess program compliance with laws and regulations
- Assess the need for changes to policies or programs based on initiatives to improve services, new services or program modifications, and opportunities for cross-collaboration of program areas
- Develop or revise policies or procedures to improve operational efficiency and effectiveness, and assist higher-level management in departmental strategic planning
- Serve as an internal technical expert regarding program matters by providing consultation and guidance to staff regarding problems with complex social service cases and delivery of services, and taking corrective actions to improve the quality and efficiency of social services
- Work collaboratively with personnel of other agencies, community groups, contractors, and other public and private organizations to determine needs for social services, and coordinate shared services or collaborative projects, or the provision of services by contracted agencies
- Ensure that information regarding department services and policies is provided accurately and thoroughly to external parties, and respond to the most sensitive complaints from the community, foster parents, and staff
- Serve as an external technical expert by providing consultation regarding program, legal, or policy matters to external entities such as County department managers or administrators, State departments, Board of Supervisors, advisory boards, and advocacy groups
