Affiliations with professional and/or community groups	- Board member, El Dorado County Historical Society - Planning Committee Member, Lead Researcher, Save the Graves El Dorado - Manager of Development & Membership Programming at the California Museum, Sacramento - Member, Preservation Sacramento - Member, the Society of California Pioneers (membership granted to descendants of families who arrived in California pre-1850)
Why do you seek appointment?	I seek appointment to El Dorado County's Historical Museum Commission because I care deeply about the conservation and preservation of our County's historic resources. As a current board member of the El Dorado County Historical Society and lead researcher for Save-the-Graves El Dorado County, I have a history of preserving, protecting, and telling the stories of El Dorado County pioneers and sharing their stories with contemporary residents and visitors. Additionally, as the manager of development and membership for the California Museum in Sacramento, I help to engage, educate and enlighten Californians about the rich history and diversity of all Californians.
