The County adopted a General Plan in 2004. Several of the Policies (7.4.2.8, 7.4.2.9, and 7.4.1.6) and Implementation Measures (CO-M and CO-U) are General Plan EIR mitigation measures that are intended to protect natural resources (Policy 7.4.2.8), corridors for wildlife movement, particularly large terrestrial mammals (Policy 7.4.2.9), and state or federally listed rare, threatened or endangered species and their habitats (Policy 7.4.1.6) and are the focus of this RFP. These policies and measures direct the County to identify important habitat and to establish a program for habitat preservation, effective management, monitoring, and mitigation. This will include developing land conservation strategies that conserve and restore contiguous blocks of important habitat to offset the effects of increased habitat loss and fragmentation elsewhere in the county. Habitat preservation areas, with preference given to large contiguous blocks of habitat in areas not subject to future fragmentation and where feasible, corridors to facilitate species movement among these blocks, are to be identified. Together, these areas will form a network of priority conservation lands in El Dorado County. Establishing such a network will provide proactive conservation planning at a landscape level that will reduce future endangered species listings, human-wildlife conflicts, and make El Dorado County more resilient to expected land-use change. El Dorado County's population is projected to reach 243,000 by 2025, an increase of over 80,000 new residents. This plan will compliment existing efforts by planners and developers to avoid or compensate for environmental impacts covered under CEQA by identifying receiving areas for investment in offsite mitigation. A conservation plan can also galvanize efforts to pursue state and federal funding to implement local land and water conservation projects. The County considered and rejected the option to pursue a Habitat Conservation Plan and Natural Communities Conservation Plan, and has elected to utilize the methodology established in the General Plan.

Phase 1 of the conservation plan was completed in April, 2011. The tasks included in that phase were an update to the habitat inventory, development of a list of indicator species appropriate to the study area, and an evaluation of wildlife movement corridors. Development of Phase 2 is intended to utilize the prior work completed with Phase 1. Reports accepted by the Board of Supervisors are posted on the Department's web site (http://www.edcgov.us/Government/Planning/General Plan Integrated Natural Resources Management Plan \(INRMP\).aspx.aspx)). Important documents are Updated INRMP Initial Inventory and Mapping, the Indicator Species Report, the Wildlife Movement and Corridor Report, and the Alternative Approaches for Preparing the INRMP Report.

A complete record of the Board hearings and background information is available on the Board of Supervisors web page (<http://eldorado.legistar.com/Calendar.aspx>). Hearing dates and agenda item numbers are as follows:

I. Background:

- a. Regional Location: El Dorado County is located in Northern California and is bordered by Sacramento, Placer, Amador and Alpine counties in California, and Douglas County, Nevada. The County is located in the central Sierra Nevada, east of the Central Valley. The western border is flanked by the City of Folsom. The eastern-most border runs through Lake Tahoe, in the Sierra Nevada.
- b. Physical Features: El Dorado County covers approximately 1,789 square miles (1,145,385 acres) ranging from the residential foothills of El Dorado Hills to the high Sierra Nevada mountain range. The Sierra Nevada, Middle Fork and South Fork American River, and Lake Tahoe are among the county's primary natural features. El Dorado County is traversed by several major roadways including US Highway 50 and State Routes 49, 88, and 89. Elevations range from 200 feet above sea level at the western most boundary of the county to 10,081 feet at the highest point of Freel Peak on the southern edge of the Lake Tahoe Basin. The County has considerable topographic variation, with more than half of the land area having slopes in excess of 25%.

Half of the land in El Dorado County is in public ownership by state, federal or local agencies. The INRMP should evaluate the extent to which resources are or can be protected on public lands as a first priority.

Agricultural land, as designated on the 2004 General Plan Land Use Diagram, comprises approximately 60,000 acres. Approximately 50,000 acres of land in the county are designated as Agricultural Districts (GP DEIR 2003). These acreage amounts do not necessarily include all grazing land, or land in current agricultural production. The 2007 El Dorado County Crop Report calculates that approximately 4,600 acres are in agricultural production supporting fruit and nut crops, hay, irrigated pasture, and nursery products. Rangeland comprises approximately 233,000 acres. The county is also a mining region, capable of producing a wide variety of mineral resources. Approximately 864,000 acres of El Dorado County are forestland; however, most forestland is at elevations higher than 4,000' and not within the scope of this study.

The county has a rich diversity of lakes and rivers, natural plant communities, and wildlife at or below the 4,000' elevation, within the study area. A unique soil type (gabbro soils) supports an array of plant species that are rare, endangered, or declining throughout their range. A substantial number of these plant populations are protected in the Pine Hill Ecological Preserve, located in five areas totaling approximately 3,550 acres in the pine Hill area between Cameron Park and Salmon Falls.

- c. Growth Patterns & Projections: The physical features and the environment of El Dorado County are an important influence on its land use and development patterns. The Sierra Nevada divides El Dorado County into two distinct topographic areas – the west slope and Lake Tahoe Basin. The west slope extends from the Sacramento County line on the west to the summit of the Sierra Nevada on the east and contains most of the developed land in the county. The 2004 General Plan directed development on the west slope to concentrate growth in areas with existing infrastructure, such as near the county line and along US Highway 50. The density of residential and commercial development gradually decreases and the amount of open space (agricultural fields and forestland) increases moving easterly from the foothills to the Sierra Nevada, as well as north and south away from the Highway 50 corridor. Placerville, located approximately 20 miles from the western county line, is the only incorporated city on the west slope.

US Highway 50 bisects El Dorado County, traveling east-west from Sacramento County through Placerville and into the Lake Tahoe Basin just south of the lake. Historically, development in the county has closely followed this route, with the densest development in the west. Major cities, towns and developments along this corridor include El Dorado Hills, Cameron Park, Shingle Springs, Placerville, Pollock Pines, and South Lake Tahoe. In addition to being a development pathway, US Highway 50 is a major transportation corridor for residents living in El Dorado County who work in Sacramento County, and for recreational-related traffic generated from areas outside of the county.

Outside the US Highway 50 corridor, west-slope development follows the other main highways in the County: State Routes 49 and 193. SR 49 crosses the county from north to south and connects many of the original boom towns founded during the Gold Rush of 1848. This route is a prime tourist destination, and the towns of Cool, Pilot Hill, Coloma, Lotus, Placerville, Diamond Springs, and El Dorado promote the mining heritage of the region with museums, historic districts, and commercial areas. SR 193 crosses the northern part of the County from SR 49 to Greenwood and Georgetown, then turns south through Kelsey, and into Placerville.

El Dorado County has experienced rapid growth over the past 30 years. The countywide population increased from 85,212 in 1980 to 181,058 in 2010. The majority of housing and commercial facilities to support the population is focused in the area nearest to the Sacramento County line and along US Highway 50. The average annual growth rate for 1980-2002 was 3 percent.

- d. El Dorado County possesses a diversity of native flora and fauna. This diversity can be attributed to a combination of unique physical characteristics that have resulted in a wide range of habitats. These unique physical features include a wide range of elevations and varied terrain, diverse substrate material, large tracts of contiguous natural habitat, and a broad range of climatic conditions. Coniferous forest is dominant at higher elevations in the eastern half (primarily located above 4,000' elevation and not generally within the scope of this study); oak and hardwood habitats are found mostly in the central region, and annual grassland, chaparral, agriculture, and urban development is found primarily in the western third of the county.

A total of 29 special-status plant species have been documented in the county. Of these, six are state or federally listed as Threatened, Endangered, or Rare. The remaining 23 special-status plants are on CNPS (California Native Plant Society) List 1B or List 2. See Table 5.12-2 of the General Plan DEIR for a complete list (http://www.co.el-dorado.ca.us/Planning/Volume2/V2_512.pdf). Not all species occur in the study plan area (below 4,000' elevation).

Seven special-status plants are restricted to the Pine Hill soil formation in western El Dorado County. These plants are of particular concern to state and federal agencies responsible for protection of natural resources because of the rarity of the plants and their limited range, and because of the high development pressure in the area. The County is currently working with the state and federal resource agencies to develop an MOU to govern processing of projects that potentially impact the Pine Hill plants. The agencies are synthesizing existing studies and data, and will be developing new data on the management of the plants. The agencies contemplate that the end result of this process will be a permit governing the Pine Hill plants. The successful Proposer will be expected to coordinate with the consultants and staff working on the Pine Hill plant issues to ensure that the Pine Hill plant work will fit into the INRMP, but will not be expected to do extensive work on this issue.

A total of 51 special-status wildlife species are known to occur in El Dorado County. Of these, ten species are state or federally listed as Threatened or Endangered: vernal pool fairy shrimp, valley elderberry longhorn beetle, Lahontan cutthroat trout, California red-legged frog, willow flycatcher, American peregrine falcon, bald eagle, bank swallow, California wolverine, and Sierra Nevada red fox. The remaining 41 species are considered as California Species of Special Concern by CDFG and/or federal Species of Concern by USFWS. See Table 5.12-3 of the General Plan DEIR for a complete list (http://www.co.el-dorado.ca.us/Planning/Volume2/V2_512.pdf). Not all species occur in the study plan area (below 4,000' elevation).

El Dorado County's Weber Creek watershed supports one of only six known populations of California red-legged frogs (CRLF) in the Sierra Nevada. The confirmed population was discovered in an impoundment along the North Fork of Weber Creek. The Spivey Pond impoundment and surrounding uplands were purchased as part of a cooperative effort between state and federal agencies and are currently managed by BLM to protect the frog and its habitat. The Spivey Pond site is the only area in El Dorado County designated or proposed to be designated as Critical Habitat for the CRLF.

The effects of existing development and growth projected by the General Plan on the western slope are threats to biological diversity and sensitive biological resources. The impacts on biological resources are primarily the result of urbanization of the area, habitat fragmentation, water pollution, and conversions of natural habitats to agricultural uses. As a result of these existing and projected impacts, El Dorado County approved Mitigation Measure 5.12-1(d) in the 2004 General Plan DEIR: Develop and Implement an Integrated Natural Resources Management Plan, which further called for the adoption of General Plan Policy 7.4.2.8 that mandates the county to identify important habitat and to establish a program for effective management and habitat preservation.

Further information on El Dorado County's biological and natural resources is available from the General Plan DEIR at:
http://www.co.el-dorado.ca.us/Planning/Volume2/V2_512.pdf.

- II. Scope of Services: The successful Proposer will be consulting throughout the process of the INRMP with the Board of Supervisors, the Planning Commission, the Agricultural Commission, County Planning staff, the Plant and Wildlife Technical Advisory Committee (PAWTAC) and the INRMP Stakeholders Advisory Committee (ISAC). PAWTAC members were appointed by the Board for their technical and biological expertise relating to plant and wildlife issues. ISAC members were chosen for their specialized community experience representing various fields. PAWTAC and ISAC will provide the consultant input for review, critiques, and recommendations for habitat mapping, habitat protections strategy, mitigation assistance, habitat acquisition, habitat management, habitat monitoring, and Important Biological Corridor overlay, utilizing their specialized knowledge of El Dorado County.

The successful Proposer will be required to enter into an agreement for services with the County substantially similar in form to that attached hereto as Exhibit "A," marked "Sample Agreement for Services." Any reference in this Request for Proposal to specific terms of the agreement are for illustrative purposes only and shall not limit the scope of the obligations to be assumed by the successful Proposer under the agreement. In the event of any conflict between a provision of this Request for Proposal and the provisions of the agreement attached as Exhibit "A," the terms of the agreement shall govern. The Services to be provided shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

Project Tasks for INRMP Phase II Scope of work:

1.0 Task 1: INRMP Master Plan

Describe approach to developing an INRMP Master Plan Document that will meet the requirements of GP EIR Impact Mitigation Measure 5.12-1, GP Policies 7.4.2.2, 7.4.2.8 and 7.4.2.9, and Measure CO-M. The Plan needs to be flexible, adaptable to change and address each of the components described in Policy 7.4.2.8 and described below:

1.1 Habitat Inventory

- 1.1.1 Develop a plan for providing required 3 year updates to the Habitat Inventory component including incorporating new data as it becomes available, and results of the monitoring program. The updates shall include the amount of important habitat protected, by habitat type, and the amount of important habitat removed because of new development during that period.

1.2 Habitat Protection Strategy

- 1.2.1 Identify appropriate scientific rationale and prioritize areas of 'important habitat' identified in Phase I.
- a. Create GIS based overlay of important habitat' areas (including prioritization ranks) with General Plan Land Use Designations and identify areas where potential conflict(s) exist.
 - b. Develop a Habitat Protection Strategy based on the identified 'conflict' areas. The proposed strategy shall include methods to monitor and report on effectiveness of the program and be able to adapt accordingly. The goal of the strategy shall be to conserve and restore habitat contiguity for important habitats to offset the effects of increased habitat loss and fragmentation elsewhere in the County.

- 1.2.2 Redefine the Important Biological Corridors (IBC's) based on information developed above and in Phase 1.
- 1.2.3 Develop prioritized list of capital improvement projects to enhance wildlife movement where determined necessary to mitigate fragmentation of wildlife habitat.
- 1.2.4 Provide procedures for protecting certain areas from degradation where wildlife movement is constrained or threatened, but identified as important habitat.

1.3 Mitigation Assistance

- 1.3.1 Develop an approach that will guide the type, location, extent, and management of mitigation that will be considered for impacts to biological resources during project-level CEQA review of land use development applications, consistent with Policy 7.4.2.8:
 - a. Based on the degree of impact and the importance of the habitat being converted to other use, establish a range of mitigation options, including feasible and practical on-site and off-site mitigation such as a graduated fee program, land or conservation easement acquisition, and habitat restoration and enhancement.
- 1.3.2 Develop an approach that will guide the avoidance, minimization and compensation for cumulative impacts from the 2004 GP consistent with Policy 7.4.2.8:
 - a. Utilizing existing information including Phase I of the INRMP, determine methods to feasibly mitigate cumulative impacts identified in the GP EIR. The methods should encompass the range of degree and types of cumulative impacts and potential mitigation. Options should be described to meet mitigation requirements.
- 1.3.3 Utilize collected in-lieu fees to acquire property or conservation easements, establish mitigation banks, or implement CIP's (identified in Habitat Protection Strategy).
- 1.3.4 Create incentives for developers and agriculture to avoid and minimize impacts to important biological resources.
- 1.3.5 Establish options for willing buyers and sellers of mitigation features.

1.4 Habitat Acquisition

- 1.4.1 Based on the findings of the Habitat Protection Strategy, identify targeted properties for acquisition.
- 1.4.2 Determine appropriate forms of acquisition (fee title, conservation easement, deed restriction, etc.) for each type of identified parcels.
- 1.4.3 Identify procedure to allow other land and resource management agencies and conservation organizations to coordinate with the County on land acquisitions and management of acquired lands and establish their roles.

1.5 Habitat Management

- 1.5.1 Define a specific management plan for each habitat type.
- 1.5.2 Develop Design Guidelines for CIP's.
- 1.5.3 Establish coordinated management plan with County staff, consultants and public agencies.
- 1.5.4 Provide recommendations for possible new ordinances and land use regulations.
- 1.5.5 Develop a review process for each property or easement acquired through the INRMP to determine whether the biological resources would benefit from restoration or management actions.

1.6 Monitoring

- 1.6.1 Develop a strategy and plan for determining what and how to monitor including areas under the Ecological Preserve overlay together with all lands acquired as part of the INRMP. Describe how monitoring information can be included in adaptive program management, including acquisition, management, and restoration.

1.7 Public Participation

- 1.7.1 Develop and implement a method for involving public in planning process and subsequent INRMP updates.
- 1.7.2 Initiate informal consultation with local, state, and federal agencies having jurisdiction over natural resources within the County.
- 1.7.3 Develop procedures for implementing a stewardship and education program.

1.8 Funding

- 1.8.1 Prepare recommended strategy for funding the INRMP program that addresses grants, fees, assessment districts and general fund contributions.
- 1.8.2 Develop a plan for obtaining and disbursing funds to meet needs of the program

2.0 Task 2: Integration, Administration and Implementation

- 2.1 Provide description of how the various components of the INRMP function together in planning, administration, implementation, monitoring and evaluation. This shall include identification of anticipated levels of human resources needed, departmental responsibilities and agency coordination.
- 2.2 Integrate the County's Oak Woodland Management Plan into the overall INRMP.

3.0 Task 3: Regulatory Compliance

- 3.1 Prepare Initial Study to determine appropriate CEQA documentation required for County adoption of the INRMP

THIS AGREEMENT made and entered by and between the County of El Dorado, a political subdivision of the State of California (hereinafter referred to as "County") and _____, a _____, duly qualified to conduct business in the State of California, whose principal place of business is _____, and whose Agent for Service of Process is Company name, physical address, (hereinafter referred to as "Consultant");

RECITALS

WHEREAS, County has determined that it is necessary to obtain a Consultant to provide _____; and

WHEREAS, Consultant has represented to County that it is specially trained, experienced, expert and competent to perform the special services required hereunder and County has determined to rely upon such representations; and

WHEREAS, it is the intent of the parties hereto that such services be in conformity with all applicable federal, state and local laws; and

WHEREAS, County has determined that the provision of these services provided by Consultant is in the public's best interest, and that these services are more economically and feasibly performed by outside independent Consultants as well as authorized by El Dorado County Charter, Section 210 (b) (6) and/or Government Code 31000;

NOW, THEREFORE, County and Consultant mutually agree as follows:

ARTICLE I

Scope of Services: Consultant agrees to furnish the personnel and equipment necessary to provide _____

ARTICLE II

Term: This Agreement shall become effective upon final execution by both parties hereto and shall expire _____.

ARTICLE III

Compensation for Services: For services provided herein, County agrees to pay Consultant monthly in arrears and within thirty (30) days following the County's receipt and approval of itemized invoice(s) identifying services rendered. For the purposes of this Agreement, the billing rate shall be _____. Total amount of this Agreement shall not exceed _____.

ARTICLE IV

Changes to Agreement: This Agreement may be amended by mutual consent of the parties hereto. Said amendments shall become effective only when in writing and fully executed by duly authorized officers of the parties hereto.

ARTICLE V

Consultant to County: It is understood that the services provided under this Agreement shall be prepared in and with cooperation from County and its staff. It is further agreed that in all matters pertaining to this Agreement, Consultant shall act as Consultant only to County and shall not act as Consultant to any other individual or entity affected by this Agreement nor provide information in any manner to any party outside of this Agreement that would conflict with Consultant's responsibilities to County during term hereof.

ARTICLE VI

Assignment and Delegation: Consultant is engaged by County for its unique qualifications and skills as well as those of its personnel. Consultant shall not subcontract, delegate or assign services to be provided, in whole or in part, to any other person or entity without prior written consent of County.

ARTICLE VII

Independent Consultant/Liability: Consultant is, and shall be at all times, deemed independent and shall be wholly responsible for the manner in which it performs services required by terms of this Agreement. Consultant exclusively assumes responsibility for acts of its employees, associates, and subconsultants, if any are authorized herein, as they relate to services to be provided under this Agreement during the course and scope of their employment.

Consultant shall be responsible for performing the work under this Agreement in a safe, professional, skillful and workmanlike manner and shall be liable for its own negligence and negligent acts of its employees. County shall have no right of control over the manner in which work is to be done and shall, therefore, not be charged with responsibility of preventing risk to Consultant or its employees.

ARTICLE VIII

Fiscal Considerations: The parties to this Agreement recognize and acknowledge that County is a political subdivision of the State of California. As such, El Dorado County is subject to the provisions of Article XVI, Section 18 of the California Constitution and other similar fiscal and procurement laws and regulations and may not expend funds for products, equipment or services not budgeted in a given fiscal year. It is further understood that in the normal course of County business, County will adopt a proposed budget prior to a given fiscal year, but that the final adoption of a budget does not occur until after the beginning of the fiscal year.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement to the contrary, County shall give notice of cancellation of this Agreement in the event of adoption of a proposed budget that does not provide for funds for the services, products or equipment subject herein. Such notice shall become effective upon the adoption of a final budget which does not provide funding for this Agreement. Upon the effective date of such notice, this Agreement shall be automatically terminated and County released from any further liability hereunder.

In addition to the above, should the Board of Supervisors during the course of a given year for financial reasons reduce, or order a reduction, in the budget for any County department for which services were contracted to be performed, pursuant to this paragraph in the sole discretion of the County, this Agreement may be deemed to be canceled in its entirety subject to payment for services performed prior to cancellation.

ARTICLE IX

Default, Termination, and Cancellation:

- A. Default: Upon the occurrence of any default of the provisions of this Agreement, a party shall give written notice of said default to the party in default (notice). If the party in default does not cure the default within ten (10) days of the date of notice (time to cure), then such party shall be in default. The time to cure may be extended at the discretion of the party giving notice. Any extension of time to cure must be in writing, prepared by the party in default for signature by the party giving notice and must specify the reason(s) for the extension and the date on which the extension of time to cure expires.

Notice given under this section shall specify the alleged default and the applicable Agreement provision and shall demand that the party in default perform the provisions of this Agreement within the applicable period of time. No such notice shall be deemed a termination of this Agreement unless the party giving notice so elects in this notice, or the party giving notice so elects in a subsequent written notice after the time to cure has expired. In the event of termination for default, County reserves the right to take over and complete the work by contract or by any other means.

- B. Bankruptcy: This Agreement, at the option of the County, shall be terminable in the case of bankruptcy, voluntary or involuntary, or insolvency of Consultant.
- C. Ceasing Performance: County may terminate this Agreement in the event Consultant ceases to operate as a business, or otherwise becomes unable to substantially perform any term or condition of this Agreement.
- D. Termination or Cancellation without Cause: County may terminate this Agreement in whole or in part upon seven (7) calendar days written notice by County without cause. If such prior termination is effected, County will pay for satisfactory services rendered prior to the effective dates as set forth in the Notice of Termination provided to Consultant, and for such other services, which County may agree to in writing as necessary for contract resolution. In no event, however, shall County be obligated to pay more than the total amount of the contract. Upon receipt of a Notice of Termination, Consultant shall promptly discontinue all services affected, as of the effective date of termination set forth in such Notice of Termination, unless the notice directs otherwise.

- E. Consultant shall furnish a certificate of insurance satisfactory to the El Dorado County Risk Manager as evidence that the insurance required above is being maintained.
- F. The insurance will be issued by an insurance company acceptable to Risk Management, or be provided through partial or total self-insurance likewise acceptable to Risk Management.
- G. Consultant agrees that the insurance required above shall be in effect at all times during the term of this Agreement. In the event said insurance coverage expires at any time or times during the term of this Agreement, Consultant agrees to provide at least thirty (30) days prior to said expiration date, a new certificate of insurance evidencing insurance coverage as provided for herein for not less than the remainder of the term of the Agreement, or for a period of not less than one (1) year. New certificates of insurance are subject to the approval of Risk Management and Consultant agrees that no work or services shall be performed prior to the giving of such approval.

In the event the Consultant fails to keep in effect at all times insurance coverage as herein provided, County may, in addition to any other remedies it may have, terminate this Agreement upon the occurrence of such event.

- H. The certificate of insurance must include the following provisions stating that:
1. The insurer will not cancel the insured's coverage without thirty (30) days prior written notice to County, and;
 2. The County of El Dorado, its officers, officials, employees, and volunteers are included as additional insured, but only insofar as the operations under this Agreement are concerned. This provision shall apply to the general liability policy.
- I. The Consultant's insurance coverage shall be primary insurance as respects the County, its officers, officials, employees and volunteers. Any insurance or self-insurance maintained by the County, its officers, officials, employees or volunteers shall be excess of the Consultant's insurance and shall not contribute with it.
- J. Any deductibles or self-insured retentions must be declared to and approved by the County, either: the insurer shall reduce or eliminate such deductibles or self-insured retentions as respects the County, its officers, officials, employees, and volunteers; or the Consultant shall procure a bond guaranteeing payment of losses and related investigations, claim administration and defense expenses.
- K. Any failure to comply with the reporting provisions of the policies shall not affect coverage provided to the County, its officers, officials, employees or volunteers.
- L. The insurance companies shall have no recourse against the County of El Dorado, its officers and employees or any of them for payment of any premiums or assessments under any policy issued by any insurance company.
- M. Consultant's obligations shall not be limited by the foregoing insurance requirements and shall survive expiration of this Agreement.
- N. In the event Consultant cannot provide an occurrence policy, Consultant shall provide insurance covering claims made as a result of performance of this Agreement for not less than three (3) years following completion of performance of this Agreement.
- O. Certificate of insurance shall meet such additional standards as may be determined by the contracting County Department either independently or in consultation with Risk Management, as essential for the protection of the County.

County represents that it is unaware of any financial or economic interest of any public officer or employee of Consultant relating to this Agreement. It is further understood and agreed that if such a financial interest does exist at the inception of this Agreement either party may immediately terminate this Agreement by giving written notice as detailed in the Article in the Agreement titled, "Default, Termination and Cancellation".
