Summary of qualifications I am a genealogist with the Daughters of the American Revolution, I help individuals trace their ancestry. Besides that I have honored and loved cemeteries. With my dad being from the south, there were many times we traveled to Virginia for decoration day.
Affiliations with professional and/or community groups Daughters of the American Revolution
Why do you seek appointment? The amazing, rich history the cemeteries in our county possess is a wonderful way to connect to the amazing history our county possesses. I would love to be a part of saving that history for future generations so they can learn from the past.
