1. The parties agree that the Total Fee paid for the Programs hereunder is in consideration of Customer’s commitment to remain on maintenance and support through the period ending August 22, 2015 (“Initial Period”). Customer’s payment of the Total Fee through the Renewal Period shall entitle Customer to those services offered under Infor’s then-current maintenance and support plan.
2. Customer shall pay the Total Fee set forth above upon Customer’s execution of this Amendment.
3. Subject to Customer’s compliance with this Amendment, Customer shall receive maintenance and support for the Active Client Systems and twenty-five (25) users and the Active Access System and two thousand five hundred (2500) users and IBM Websphere Host Access Transformation Service and Connector Foundation for no additional fees for as long as Customer remains on maintenance and support for the corresponding Program set forth above and for so long as Infor generally provides maintenance and support to its customers.
4. If Customer licenses additional Infor Programs and/or users during the Renewal Period the annual support and maintenance fees shall increase in accordance with the order form(s) executed by the parties for the license of any additional Infor Programs and/or users.
