

El Dorado County
Board of Supervisors
Certificate of Appreciation

Awarded to

ELIZABETH BOEHM

With appreciation for the courage and dedication you demonstrated as the original youth founder of the El Dorado County Youth Commission. Your "project" during your freshman year at Shenandoah High School was starting the Youth Commission and your continued support and volunteer hours to 4-H and youth programs in El Dorado County provide our youth with an exceptional role model.

El Dorado County
Board of Supervisors
Certificate of Appreciation

Awarded to

SANDRA MARTIN

With appreciation for your commitment to 4-H and youth programs and your assistance in starting The El Dorado County Youth Commission. Your countless hours in starting new programs, writing grants and fund raising with the youth, has facilitated the processes the Youth Commission uses today. Your vision that helped create ED GABY (El Dorado Grant Advisory Board for Youth) along with El Dorado Community Foundation is a legacy that remains for our youth today.
