Summary of qualifications	I was a El Dorado County Court Appointed Special Advocate in 2017. I represented both foster youth and parents in the Yolo County Dependency system for 5 years. I am currently the Executive Director of CASA El Dorado. I have a Bachelor's in Legal Studies from UC California Berkeley and a law degree from Pacific Coast University.
Affiliations with professional and/or community groups	I am the Director of CASA, a CASA and a member of the Placerville Rotary.

Why do you seek appointment?

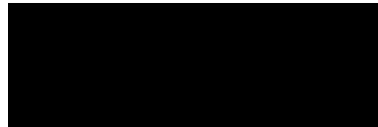

I am eager to join the Child Abuse Prevention Council because I strongly believe that community-based support and preventative services are key to reducing child abuse. I am passionate about working with the community to further this cause and to help create a safer, more supportive environment for children and families. I look forward to contributing my efforts and collaborating with others to make a meaningful impact.
