Summary of qualifications I was born and raised in Apple Hill. My parents have been farmers my entire life. I graduated from El Dorado High School in 2002. I hold a degree in Wine and Viticulture from Cal Poly San Luis Obispo (2006). As a student of the inaugural class offered Viticulture as a Major, I helped the Student Senate define the required coursework, and worked with industry to facilitate equipment donations. I've studied and worked abroad in the wine and fruit industry. I started my professional career working for Gallo winery and more recently in Sonoma County, where I served on the Millennial Marketing Council for the Russian River Valley Winegrowers Association. I currently run Goldbud Farms Vineyard and Orchard operations and market the crop from over 200 acres of Vineyard and 60 acres of Peach, Plum, Pluot, Nectarine, Pears and Apples.
Affiliations with professional and/or community groups Placerville Fruit Growers Association - Member, Board of Directors El Dorado Wine Grape Growers Association - Vice President, Board of Directors
Why do you seek appointment? I seek to help preserve El Dorado County's rich history of high quality agricultural production while serving the greater public benefit by hearing community input and crafting thoughtful advise on reasonable administrative relief, and/or changes to current zoning and ordinances where needed. I'd like to see a continuation of the vitality of our County's agricultural sector and make it's existence compatible with other local land uses.
Additional Information In my capacity as VP of EDWGGA, I serve as the liaison to the El Dorado Winery Association. I also have strong relationships with many local farmers, winemakers, land owners, business owners and civic leaders. I currently manage the relationship with El Dorado Counties largest Winegrape buyer (Bogle Vineyards) and Fresh Market Tree Fruit purchaser (Whole Foods).
