Good Morning All,

Beginning next Monday, November 4th, I'll be off duty and on a planned vacation. I'll be returning on Thursday, November 14th. During that time, Deputy Chief Romanko will have signature authority and general responsibility for decision making in the absence of another division manager.

Extended time away from the office and, in this case, potentially off the grid, are not topics I generally broadcast however in this case it's the foundation for an apology.

Next week many of you will be attending the law enforcement funeral service for Deputy Brian Ishmael. I deeply regret that I will not be there to represent our department. I did attempt to adjust the schedule of travel but in the end the options were too limited to reasonably ask my family to make the change.

I have spoken to the Undersheriff and shared my regret and sent a note to the Sheriff with the same message, which included the fact that we will be well represented by all of you. They are very appreciative of all the support they have received from individuals within and from the department. I shared with them that we are mourning with them and there were over a hundred hearts here wishing them a healthy and brief mourning period.

Please know how much I wish the circumstances were different but thank you in advance for representing us well and showing your support for Deputy Ishmael, his family, his department, and our law enforcement family.

-Chief
