Re: Important information about your
TransUnion account, effective May 26, 2014

Dear Valued TransUnion Customer:

As you know, the only constant in business is change, whether it's investing in developing and delivering better services and solutions, keeping up with the evolving needs and expectations of your customers or adjusting to the ever-increasing cost of doing business. That is why every business finds it necessary to adjust prices from time to time. Decisions like this are not easy for companies such as TransUnion that respect and value their customers.

Beginning May, 26, 2014, changes will go into effect for certain TransUnion products and fees. Please see the reverse side of this notification for details regarding your new product pricing and fees. Please feel free to contact your Account Representative at 800.730.0126 if you have any questions or if you need more information.

As always, thank you for choosing TransUnion. We look forward to continuing to offer you services and solutions that help you achieve more.

Sincerely,

TransUnion Client Services

When a consumer's first name or first initial and last name is used in combination with both (a) a social security number, driver's license or identification card number, or account number, credit or debit card number, and, (b) any required security code, access code, or password that would permit access to an individual's financial account ("Personal Information"), and such combined information is delivered to Subscriber unencrypted, Subscriber shall implement and maintain reasonable security procedures and practices appropriate to the nature of the information and to protect the Personal Information from unauthorized access, destruction, use, modification, or disclosure including without limitation, ensuring any Subscriber intentional deletion, destruction and/or disposal of Personal Information (whether in paper, electronic, or any other form, and regardless of medium on which such Personal Information is stored) is performed in a manner so as to reasonably prevent its misappropriation or other unauthorized use including, but not limited to, cross-shredding printed information and pulverizing or incinerating tapes, disks and other such non-paper media.

- 5.3 Authorized Requests. Subscriber shall use the Services: (a) solely for the Subscriber's certified use(s); (b) solely for Subscriber's exclusive one-time use; and, (c) subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement. Subscriber shall not request, obtain or use Services for any other purpose including, but not limited to, for the purpose of selling, leasing, renting or otherwise providing information obtained under this Agreement to any other party, whether alone, in conjunction with Subscriber's own data, or otherwise in any service which is derived from the Services. Services shall be requested by, and only disclosed by Subscriber to, Subscriber's designated and authorized employees having a need to know and only to the extent necessary to enable Subscriber to use the Services in accordance with this Agreement. Subscriber shall ensure that such Subscriber designated and authorized employees shall not attempt to obtain any Services on themselves, associates, or any other person except in the exercise of their official duties.
- 5.4 Rights to Services. Subscriber shall not attempt, directly or indirectly, to reverse engineer, decompile, or disassemble Services or any confidential or proprietary criteria developed or used by TransUnion relating to the Services provided under this Agreement. Except as explicitly set forth in this Agreement, the entire right, title and interest in and to the Services shall at all times vest exclusively in TransUnion. TransUnion reserves all rights not explicitly granted to Subscriber under this Agreement.
- 5.5 Compliance with Laws. Each party hereto shall be responsible for its own compliance with all applicable federal and state legislation, regulations and judicial actions, including, but not limited to, FCRA, GLBA and all other applicable privacy laws, and "do not call" laws, as now or as may become effective, to which it is subject.
- 5.6 Fees and Payments. Subscriber agrees to pay mutually agreed upon fees and charges for Services provided to Subscriber under this Agreement. Such pricing is hereby incorporated into this Agreement by reference. Any periodic and/or minimum Subscriber fees under this Agreement are non-refundable, in whole or in part, in the event of a termination of this Agreement. TransUnion reserves the right to change the fees and charges from time to time, but no change in such charges shall become effective as to the Subscriber earlier than thirty (30) days after written notice thereof shall have been given by TransUnion to Subscriber. Subscriber shall also pay all the cost of all media, media shipping, and insurance costs, taxes, duties and/or other charges of any kind imposed by any federal, state, or local governmental entity for the Services, Services Information, or both, provided under this Agreement. However, Subscriber shall not be responsible for taxes imposed upon TransUnion by any federal, state or local authority against the gross income of TransUnion.
- 5.6.1 In addition, in the event that TransUnion's cost of rendering Services increases as a result of federal, state or local laws, ordinances or other regulatory, administrative or governmental acts, then TransUnion may implement a surcharge subject to the following: (a) any surcharge will be applicable generally to TransUnion's customers; (b) TransUnion will provide sixty (60) days prior written notice to Subscriber prior to implementing any new surcharge; and, (c) any surcharge will be applied only to products and services pertaining to consumers in the geographic area affected by the law, ordinance or other regulatory, administrative or governmental ordinance or other regulatory, administrative or governmental act. A legislative surcharge is imposed on certain types of reports pertaining to consumers residing in the United States, and an additional surcharge is imposed on certain reports pertaining to only Colorado residents.
- 5.6.2 TransUnion shall provide invoices to Subscriber and Subscriber shall pay such invoices within thirty (30) days of the invoice date. Without limiting any of TransUnion's remedies for non-payment or late payment of invoices, invoices which are not paid within sixty (60) days of the invoice date shall be subject to a late charge of one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month (18% per year) or the maximum allowed by law, whichever is less. If collection efforts are required, Subscriber shall pay all costs of collection, including reasonable attorneys' fees.
