Actress Sofia Vergara and fellow cast members of "Modern Family" have been hanging out around Lake Tahoe the last two days, according to Instagram posts. Some of their Instagram posts say they are shooting an episode on the water.

"Modern Family" is a faux-documentary comedy of three generations living and interacting with each other in suburban Los Angeles.

In the show, actors Vergara and Ed O'Neill play an intergenerational and interracial couple. Actors Eric Stonestreet and Jesse Tyler Ferguson play a gay couple with an adopted Vietnamese daughter and actors Julie Bowen and Ty Burrell play a traditional couple with three children.

Vergara and the children actors — Ariel Winter, Nolan Gould, Rico Rodriguez and Aubrey Anderson-Emmons — posted their Tahoe adventures on Instagram.

Based on the various locations, they all appear to be filming or at least exploring parts of South Lake Tahoe. The first photo by Vergara shows them in Edgewood Tahoe golf course if you enhance the image, flip it over and look at the bill on the table (not that we did that...).
