

Proclamation of the Board of Supervisors of the County of El Dorado

Declaring May 6, 2014 as GIVE WHERE YOU LIVE DAY in El Dorado County

WHEREAS, On May 6, 2014, the El Dorado Community Foundation will join hundreds of community foundations across the country in a 24 hour giving challenge through a national campaign called the National Day of Giving. This unprecedented event is a celebration of giving by many donors which will not just bring additional funding, but increased awareness of the nonprofit sector who work tirelessly to make our communities a better place; and

WHEREAS, The El Dorado Community Foundation has been planning and preparing our version of the National Day of Giving, named GIVE WHERE YOU LIVE, designed exclusively for our own communities in El Dorado County. This virtual event will showcase El Dorado County nonprofits and give you an opportunity to support them by “funding a need”; and

WHEREAS, The need could be $5 for art supplies, $40 for diapers, $50 for a sports scholarship, or $100 for family counseling services. Easy gifting avenues will be available online with a credit card, on your smart phone by dialing 55000 (watch for code details), at the El Dorado Community Foundation Office at 312 Main Street in Placerville, or at El Dorado Savings Banks throughout the county for walk-in gifts; and

WHEREAS, The El Dorado County Office of Education’s internet technology department has developed the El Dorado Community Foundation’s website at www.eldoradocf.org, where you can click on GIVE WHERE YOU LIVE and quickly learn how you can join in the fun and excitement as the ticker rises and together we make a huge difference!

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Board of Supervisors of El Dorado County do hereby proclaim May 6, 2014 as “GIVE WHERE YOU LIVE DAY” in the County of El Dorado and encourage our communities to fund a local need.

Passed and adopted by the Board of Supervisors of the County of El Dorado at a regular meeting, held the 29th day of April, 2014.
