

PROCLAMATION

Of the Board of Supervisors of the County of El Dorado In Recognition of the Community Volunteers Who Support The El Dorado County Library

WHEREAS, the El Dorado County Library enriches the lives of our county residents by promoting lifelong learning and literacy for all ages by providing research and information services, educational programs and classes, community facilities and comprehensive collections of traditional and current resources; and,

WHEREAS, the El Dorado County Library makes these services and resources available to all county residents through the successful operation of each of its six branch libraries located in El Dorado Hills, Cameron Park, Georgetown, Pollock Pines, South Lake Tahoe and the Main Library in Placerville; and,

WHEREAS, the success of the El Dorado County Library is due to the work of the more than 350 dedicated community volunteers who support the daily operations at each of the branch library locations and who coordinate fundraising and community outreach events as volunteer members of the Friends of the Library; and,

WHEREAS, together these community volunteers dedicate over 16,000 hours of their time, energy and talent each year, ensuring that the El Dorado County Library Program continues to successfully provide information, education, and technology to help the community live, learn, and grow.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT PROCLAIMED, that the Board of Supervisors of the County of El Dorado does hereby recognize the community volunteers who support the El Dorado County Library in appreciation for their meaningful work that keeps local libraries and their services available to all county residents.
