

DEPUTY PROBATION OFFICER II (B)

DEFINITION

Under general supervision or direction, performs a variety of duties related to intake, court, and field probation services for juveniles and adults, such as providing recommendations to the court, caseload management, counseling and guidance, enforcing the conditions of probation, investigating clients, and coordinating and providing direct services for probation related programs; and performs related duties as assigned.

SUPERVISION RECEIVED AND EXERCISED

Receives general supervision or direction from an assigned Deputy Probation Officer Supervisor. Exercises no direct supervision over staff.

CLASS CHARACTERISTICS

This is the journey-level classification in the Deputy Probation Officer class series and is fully competent to perform the full range of probation peace officer duties for a diversified clientele. Incumbents are responsible for monitoring and providing rehabilitative services to adult and juvenile offenders and for ensuring adherence to court orders. This class is distinguished from the Sr. Deputy Probation Officer in that the latter provides lead direction to probation staff and/or performs the more specialized probation duties.

EXAMPLES OF TYPICAL JOB FUNCTIONS (Illustrative Only)

- Monitors a caseload of juvenile and/or adult offenders; assesses needs and develops rehabilitation treatment programs.
- Ensures adherence to court orders; counsels and advises offenders regarding pertinent personal, social, educational, financial, vocational, and health matters.
- Performs the full range of responsibilities as a California Peace Officer as identified in PC 830.5.
- Arranges and monitors placement of offenders in various rehabilitation and/or treatment programs.
- Intervenes in crisis situations involving offenders; interviews and advises offenders, family members, victims, and others; confers with other departments or agencies and makes referrals as needed.
- Investigates and processes violations and makes recommendations to the court; arrests and transports probationers to detention facility.
- Compiles, investigates, verifies, and presents reports on personal, social, educational, financial, vocational, health, and/or prior criminal history of offenders; develops recommendations for disposition and presents reports to various courts, officials, and agencies.
- Appears and/or testifies in court for a variety of hearings; attends special and/or review hearings.
- Conducts alcohol/drug testing; processes required paperwork.
- Writes and accurately files a variety of progress reports, legal documents, and reports relating to assigned offenders.
- Completes court-ordered investigations.
- Investigates and makes recommendations regarding courtesy supervision by outside agencies.
- Identifies and develops community resources, including foster parents and residential facilities; coordinates licensing procedures.

- Serves as Placement Officer; investigates and monitors placement resources; transports juveniles.
- Coordinates and administers support programs for probation such as diversion or community service work.
- Maintains communication and liaison with law enforcement, social services, probation, and other community resource agencies.
- Conducts searches of clients, including client residences and possessions.
- Performs related duties as assigned.

QUALIFICATIONS

Some knowledge and abilities may be gained by employees at the entry (I) level while in a learning capacity.

Knowledge of:

- Principles, practices, and techniques of probation duties.
- Principles and practices of applied psychology and behavior modification.
- Applicable federal, state, and local laws, ordinances, and policies applicable to adult and juvenile custody and probation.
- Principles and practices of Penal Code, Welfare and Institution Code, Title 15, juvenile law, drug laws, and search and seizure laws.
- Methods and techniques of effective interviewing.
- Basic principles, practices, and procedures of adult and juvenile criminal and civil justice systems.
- Community resources and agencies.
- Principles and techniques for working with groups and fostering effective team interaction to ensure teamwork is conducted smoothly.
- Techniques for providing a high level of customer service by effectively dealing with the public, vendors, contractors, and County staff.
- The structure and content of the English language, including the meaning and spelling of words, rules of composition, and grammar.
- Modern equipment and communication tools used for business functions and program, project, and task coordination.
- Computers and software programs (e.g., Microsoft software packages) to conduct, compile, and/or generate documentation.

Ability to:

- Assess and evaluate the risks and needs of adults and juveniles.
- Develop and monitor rehabilitation treatment programs.
- Interview in crisis situations and determine and take appropriate actions.
- Compile and analyze complex information from a variety of sources and develop sound recommendations.
- Develop and implement effective case management strategies, including involvement of appropriate adjunct services and therapies.
- Conduct investigations and evaluations of juvenile and adult criminals, and other situations including, social history, nature of crime or situation, aggravating/mitigating circumstances, and related factors of evaluation.
- Compose reports, correspondence, and other written material; analyze complex information from a variety of sources.
- Understand, interpret, and apply all pertinent laws, codes, regulations, policies and procedures, and standards relevant to work performed.

- Effectively represent the department and the County in meetings with governmental agencies; community groups; various business, professional, and regulatory organizations; and in meetings with individuals.
- Independently organize work, set priorities, meet critical deadlines, and follow-up on assignments.
- Effectively use computer systems, software applications, and modern business equipment to perform a variety of work tasks.
- Communicate clearly and concisely, both orally and in writing, using appropriate English grammar and syntax.
- Use tact, initiative, prudence, and independent judgment within general policy, procedural, and legal guidelines.
- Establish, maintain, and foster positive and effective working relationships with those contacted in the course of work.

Education and Experience:

One (1) year of experience at a level equivalent to the County's class of Deputy Probation Officer I, including the required Probation Officer CORE training, 832 PC training and CPR/First Aid training.

Licenses and Certifications:

- Possession of, or ability to obtain and maintain, a valid California or Nevada Driver's License and a satisfactory driving record.
- Must successfully complete and obtain the following within the first year of employment:
 - A Probation Officer CORE certificate, by the authority of CCR Title 15, Sec. 131(a)(4);
 - A certificate of completion of Penal Code 832 training, by the authority of California Penal Code Sec. 830-832; and
 - A CPR/First Aid certification, by the authority of Board of State and Community Corrections Training Manual.

PHYSICAL DEMANDS

Must possess mobility to work in a standard office setting and use standard office equipment, including a computer, and to operate a vehicle to various County and meeting sites; maintain California Board of Corrections physical standards, including mobility, physical strength, and stamina to respond to emergency situations and to perform assigned duties; vision to maintain a firearms qualification (if assigned) and to read printed materials and a computer screen; and hearing and speech to communicate in person, before groups, and over the telephone or radio. The job involves fieldwork requiring frequent walking on uneven terrain, and climbing and descending structures to access work sites. Finger dexterity is needed to access, enter, and retrieve data using a computer keyboard or calculator and to operate public safety equipment. Positions in this classification frequently bend, stoop, kneel, reach, and climb to perform work. Employees must possess the ability to lift, carry, push, and pull materials and objects up to 50 pounds as necessary to perform job functions. Reasonable accommodations will be made for individuals on a case-by-case basis.

ENVIRONMENTAL CONDITIONS

Employees work indoors and outdoors, and are exposed to loud noise levels, cold and hot temperatures, inclement weather conditions, vibration, confining workspaces, chemicals, mechanical and/or electrical hazards, and hazardous physical substances and fumes. Employees may interact with members of the public or with staff under emotionally stressful conditions while interpreting and enforcing departmental policies and procedures. The duties of this class are performed in an environment with exposure to criminal offenders, mentally ill individuals, and persons potentially infected with communicable diseases.

WORKING CONDITIONS

Must be able to work irregular, long, rotating, and emergency shifts. Candidates not currently employed as a peace officer with the County's Probation Department must also successfully meet all requirements for peace officer status pursuant to Government Code Sections 1029 and 1031, including a criminal history check, comprehensive background investigation, and psychological and medical evaluation. Must be at least 18 years of age prior to employment, by the authority of CCR Title 15 Sec. 131(a)(7). Must pass the Probation Officer written examination as developed and approved by the Board of State and Community Corrections (BSCC), by the authority of California Code of Regulations (CCR) Title 15, Sec. 131(a)(1).