El Dorado Wineries Shine at the State Fair!

The California State Fair Wine Competition has been judging California wines since 1854 - it is 157 years of evaluating the wines of California winemakers.

This year's 2011 competition should go down as a proud moment for all the wineries in the Sierra Foothills Appellation - more importantly...for the wineries in El Dorado Wine Country.

"An interesting observation that should bring a sense of pride to every Sierra Foothill winery is Napa had 23 red wines (Golds and Double Golds) being tasted for Best of Region. Sonoma had 19 reds, South Central Coast had 12 reds, and California appellation had 25 reds. SIERRA FOOTHILLS HAD 51 GOLD AND DOUBLE GOLD RED WINES! A MOST INCREDIBLE HAPPENSTANCE." Said "Pooch"

Pucilowski, Chief Judge and Consultant to the California State Fair Commercial Wine Competition.

Peter Gamble, Wine Maker and Wine Consultant from Ontario, Canada stated firmly, "In over 25 years of my judging wines from around the world, the greatest single flight of wines I've ever had was at this year's California State Fair; over thirty of fifty wines presented in the regional finals were at the 'spectacular' level. Amazing!" Be proud Sierra Foothills wine region, you deserve it!

Among those receiving top honors was Windwalker Vineyard with a Double Gold for their 2008 Primitivo "Shady Lady" 98! Windwalker was also awarded Best of Show - Red; Best of California; Best of Region Red Sierra Foothills Appellation and Best of Class Sierra Foothills Appellation. Ranked 3rd Best Winery in the State of California, they also took home 3 Gold, 5 Silver and 2 Bronze medals.

Auriga Wine Cellars took home 3 Gold for their 2008 Merlot, 2009 Sangiovese and 2009 Barbera. Boeger Winery receive 1 Gold for their 2008 Migliore; Crystal Basin Cellars received Gold for their 2008 Gren, Syr. Mourv; 2 Golds for Gold Hill Vineyard for their 2009 Chardonnay - Best of Class and 2007 Petite Syrah; Lewis Grace Patriot Gold for their 2006 Cabernet Sauvignon and Perry Creek received a Gold for their 2008 Cabernet Sauvignon.
