Dear Supervisors,

Forebay Park Horseshoe Club members support El Dorado County's purchase of 13 developed acres, known as Forebay Park, from El Dorado Irrigation District. Forebay Park is located in Pollock Pines, California and supports the surrounding communities with a variety of recreational facilities. This park has had a long standing relationship with the community and through the efforts of volunteers and park users; it has continued to be maintained and operational.

Our organization supports the park by holding club and national horseshoe tournaments that draws players from all over Northern California and Nevada. The tournaments also help support the community by promoting tourism to El Dorado County. Forebay Park Horseshoe Club also supports the park by maintaining and improving the horseshoe pit area, the restrooms, the gate and the entrance into the park. El Dorado County is a large rural county and it is very challenging to provide well maintained parks and trails. Forebay Park Horseshoe Club believes that the residents in our county, especially those in the Pollock Pines and Camino areas, will continue to utilize this Community Park and volunteers will assist with maintenance and improvements as needed.

Sincerely,

Rick Eddy
