 2. Physical posting of notice on the property proposed for development so as to be visible to the public;
 3. For land development with 300 dwelling units and larger, the project application may require a public outreach plan as determined by the Development Services Division Director, to be conducted by the applicant, to further provide early public notice and input on the development application, subject to review and approval by the Development Services Division Director; and
 4. Published once in at least one newspaper of general circulation at least ten (10) days prior to the hearing.

Section 130.10.020. - Commission hearing.

- A. Following the filing of a verified petition as provided for in Section 130.10.010.A, the executive secretary of the Planning Commission shall designate the time and place of the public hearing on the petition as may be required by law, and shall give notice of the hearing as required by law, subject to the provisions under Section 130.10.040.

The failure of any property owner to receive such notice shall not invalidate the proceedings.

Section 130.10.040. - Board hearing.

- A. Upon receipt of the report from the planning commission, the clerk of the board of supervisors shall set the matter for public hearing after notice thereof and of the proposed amendment, given as provided by law, and in addition thereto shall give notice of the time and place of the hearing by mail to all property owners within one thousand feet of the property proposed to be rezoned, excluding condominium conversions, and:
1. 2,640 feet (half a mile) notice for residential applications creating between 300 through 999 lots;
 2. 5,280 feet (one mile) notice for residential applications creating 1,000 lots or more;
 3. Physical posting of notice on the property proposed for development so as to be visible to the public; and
 4. For land development with 300 dwelling units and larger, the project application may require a public outreach plan as determined by the County, to be conducted by the applicant, to further provide early public notice and input on the development application, subject to review and approval by the Development Services Division Director.

The notice shall state the location and present zoning of the property and the nature of the proposed amendment. The notice shall be mailed at least ten days prior to the date of the hearing. The failure of any property owner to receive the notice shall not invalidate the proceedings.

After the conclusion of the hearing, the board of supervisors may adopt the amendment or any part thereof as approved by the planning commission or take any other action it deems appropriate and consistent with the general plan.

Section 130.22.200. - Notice of hearings.
