County will respond in writing to Buyer stating its intent with respect to the proposed resell of the Subject Deed Restricted Unit (iii) If the owner of the Subject Deed Restricted Unit is unable to sell the Subject Deed Restricted Unit within sixty (60) days of a good faith offering and advertising the unit for sale, the owner may offer to sell the unit to the County at the Affordable Housing Price at the time of offer. If the County or its assignee does not complete the purchase of the unit within ninety (90) days of the owner's offer of sale to the County, the re-sale obligations of this section shall terminate; however, the provisions of this section relating to recapture of equity upon resale set forth in Section 4.c below shall continue to apply and remain in full force and effect.

c) If the Subject Deed Restricted Unit does not sell within sixty (60) days of a good faith offering and advertising the unit for sale and if the County does not acquire the Subject Deed Restricted Unit as specified in this section, the Subject Deed Restricted Unit may be sold at the current market price, and the seller shall pay to the County all proceeds from the sale of the unit less a percentage of profit, if any, as provided in this section. For purposes of this section, profit is defined as the net proceeds from the sale after deducting loan(s), ordinary expenses attributed to the seller, including real estate commissions not to exceed six (6) percent, and after deducting the current Affordable Housing Price. If the owner has made improvements to the home, profit shall be determined by deducting the adjusted basis of the home, or the current Affordable Housing Price, whichever is higher. The percentage of profit retained by the owner shall vary according to the number of years an owner owns the residential unit. The percentage of profit to be allocated to the owner is provided as follows:
