BOARD OF SUPERVISORS
EL DORADO COUNTY

5. Summary of qualifications related to group(s) listed above. (What experience or special knowledge do you bring to your area of interest?)

I was the Public Works Department engineering advisor to the Building Departments of the cities of Eureka and Newark, and the Chief Building Official for the City of Placerville. I designed a number of structures of different types between 1975 and 2002 as the principal engineer for McGuire Engineering, and reviewed (plan checked) quite a few complicated structures as Senior Civil Engineer for the Building Department (later Building Services) between 2002 and 2008. I have a BSCE degree from Stanford University and am licensed as a Civil Engineer in California and Nevada.

6. Affiliations with professional and/or community groups.

I am currently a professional member of ICC (International Code Council), director of the El Dorado County Fair since 1973: member of SAGE (past chairman of Structural Committee): and director (board member) of the California Fairs Financing Authority (a joint powers agency dba California Construction Authority). Previous affiliations include 16 years as director and Board President of the El Dorado County RCD: Board member of El Dorado County C of C: 10 years with Kiwanis Club: VP of Apple Hill Growers, etc.

7. Why do you seek appointment?

I have a strong interest in seeing Development Services be the best that it can be. With my experience in working with other groups, together with my education and training; I believe I can advance that interest and bring a viewpoint not present on the current committee.
