Summary of qualifications While attending Louisiana State University, I completed various courses in racial diversity and social justice. I grew up in a large multicultural city where diversity was valued. Throughout my youth I volunteered in classrooms in the New Orleans Public School System. I come from a family with a rich history of collaborating with the community to bring people of all races together to support economic growth, freedom, education, and opportunity.
Affiliations with professional and/or community groups none
Why do you seek appointment? I intend to use my life experiences to foster peaceful relations between all people in our community, and will work with members of the commission to promote an equitable society in El Dorado County.
