

Housing First Assessment (check all that apply)

<input type="checkbox"/>	Access to programs is not contingent on sobriety, minimum income requirements, lack of a criminal record, completion of treatment, participation in services, or other unnecessary conditions.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Programs or projects do everything possible not to reject an individual or family on the basis of poor credit or financial history, poor or lack of rental history, minor criminal convictions, or behaviors that are interpreted as indicating a lack of "housing readiness."
<input type="checkbox"/>	People with disabilities are offered clear opportunities to request reasonable accommodations within applications and screening processes and during tenancy and building and apartment units include special physical features that accommodate disabilities.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Programs or projects that cannot serve someone work through the coordinated entry process to ensure that those individuals or families have access to housing and services elsewhere.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Housing and service goals and plans are highly client centered and driven.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Supportive services emphasize engagement and problem-solving over therapeutic goals.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Participation in services or compliance with service plans are not conditions of tenancy but are reviewed with clients and regularly offered as a resource to clients.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Services are informed by a harm-reduction philosophy that recognizes that drug and alcohol use and addiction are a part of some clients' lives. Clients are engaged in non-judgmental communication regarding drug and alcohol use and are offered education regarding how to avoid risky behaviors and engage in safer practices.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Substance use in and of itself, without other lease violations, is not considered a reason for eviction.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Clients are given reasonable flexibility in paying their share of rent on time and offered special payment arrangements for rent arrears and/or assistance with financial management, including representative payee arrangements as needed.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Every effort is made to provide a client the opportunity to transfer from one housing situation, program, or project to another if a tenancy is in jeopardy. Whenever possible, eviction back into homelessness is avoided.
