Absent: 1 - Sue Novasel

DISCUSSION ITEMS

4. 21-0535 Unite Us Discussion led by Commissioner Don Semon (est. time: 40 min)

Commissioner Don Semon summarized his conversation with County Counsel Paula Frantz concerning Unite Us. She concerns about the release of information expiration date and sharing potentially confidential information and would like to see the presentation from Unite Us and have more time to analyze before commenting.

Commissioners all thought that Unite Us has the potential to be a helpful service for El Dorado County if County Counsel is satisfied that it meets all legal requirements.

This item will be continued to the next meeting for comment from County Counsel.

There was public discussion from Kathi Guerrero and Kendra Devejian

5. 21-0536 Discussion of Commission Priorities (est. time: 50 min)

Attachments: 21-0536 A. State v EDC Measures

Commissioner Barry Harwell presented data collected by himself and Jamie Monroe comparing El Dorado County data measures to California data measures organized by category.

Commissioners Kristen Patterson and Cheyanne Lane requested more transitional age youth data. Commissioner Brian Richart requested additional probation data. Commissioners Barry Harwell and Brian Richart requested data of other similar counties for comparison. Leslie Griffith said she will pass on the requests to Jamie Monroe.

Commissioner Dr. Ed Manansala suggested a report card to communicate our findings with the community.

Commissioner Don Semon suggested a presentation to the Board of Supervisors in June or July to summarize the work this commission has done so far.

There was no public comment.
