Sheriff's Department recommending Chair be authorized to sign Memorandum of Understanding 466-M1010 between the County of El Dorado and Campaign Against Marijuana Planting for the term June 22, 2010 to October 30, 2010.

FUNDING: N/A

Fiscal Impact/Change to Net County Cost: No funding associated with this memorandum of understanding (MOU).

Reason for Recommendation: The purpose of the MOU is to identify Campaign Against Marijuana Planting (CAMP) and Sheriff's Department responsibilities related to cannabis eradication operations in the County of El Dorado. The Sheriff's Department is committed to furnish a lead deputy while CAMP teams are operational in the county and be responsible for the disposition of all contraband and evidence seized during CAMP operations. The local jurisdiction shall conduct the investigations and have the responsibility to prosecute any arrested suspects with their District Attorney's Office.

The term of the MOU is June 22, 2010 to October 30, 2010.

Action to be taken following Board approval: Board Chair will sign the MOU and return to the Sheriff's Department for distribution.

Contact: Sheriff Kollar

Concurrences: Approved by County Counsel with recommendation that MOU be brought to the Board noting the agreement contains a mutual indemnity provision the exposes the County to liability. Reviewed and approved by Risk Management.
