DEPARTMENT RECOMMENDATION

The Sheriff's Office recommends the Board approve this Amendment. National Medical Services, Inc., provides critical forensic and toxicology services that are paramount to verifying the cause of death in Coroner cases.

DISCUSSION / BACKGROUND

National Medical Services Inc. has been providing selected forensic analyses and toxicology services for the El Dorado County Sheriff, Coroner's Division since 2002.

On November 15, 2016, the Board approved entering into Agreement #214-S1710 with National Medical Services Inc., with a term of November 1, 2016 thru October 31, 2017 with a not to exceed amount of $95,000.

This Amendment will increase the not to exceed amount to $190,000 and extend the term for an additional year from November 1, 2017 through October 31, 2018.

The Sheriff's Office is currently working with National Medical Services to get updated insurance certificates; once received they will be uploaded into Ebix and the blue route will be routed through Risk Management for approval.
