Chief Administrative Officer recommending the Board reappoint David Livingston, County Counsel, to a four-year term in accordance with County Charter Section 403.

FUNDING: N/A

DISCUSSION / BACKGROUND

County Charter section 403 states, "The Board of Supervisors shall appoint a County Counsel who shall have the same duties as a County Counsel appointed under the general law. The County Counsel shall serve for four years from the time of appointment. The four-year term shall commence eighteen months after each Presidential election."

At least ninety days prior to the end of a term, the Board of Supervisors shall notify the incumbent County Counsel if he or she will be appointed to a successive term. If such notification is given, the successive term will commence immediately upon completion of the prior term.

County Counsel's current term ends on May 2, 2022, so the Board must notify Mr. Livingston of its intent no later than February 2, 2022.

Mr. Livingston is currently at the top step (Step 5) of the salary schedule so there are no recommended changes to compensation based on this Board action.

ALTERNATIVES

The Board could choose not to reappoint Mr. Livingston. If the Board chooses not to appoint Mr. Livingston to a new term, staff will immediately begin a recruitment for a new County Counsel prior to the end of Mr. Livingston's term on May 2, 2022.
