County Counsel recommending the Board approve Resolution 244-2014 which adopts the revised Conflict of Interest Code, and rescinds Resolution 026-2011.

Fiscal Impact/Change to Net County Cost

None

Reason for Recommendation

State Law requires that the County periodically update its local conflict of interest code. County Counsel has reviewed the present code and recommends certain changes in order to bring it into conformance with law. The attached Resolution incorporates the recommended changes

Clerk of the Board Follow Up Actions

Approval of the updated conflict of interest code by the Board of Supervisors make those codes effective. Notice of the Board of Supervisors' approval will be transmitted to County Counsel by staff. No further action by the Board is necessary.
