Fiscal Impact/Change to Net County Cost:

Background:

Reason for Recommendation: The Board of Supervisors has offered the AOC land next to the County's main jail in Placerville for the construction of a new west slope court facility. The AOC is considering the site along with other ones and has convened a Project Advisory Group to assist them in making the final decision. The Chief Administrative Office recommends the Board authorize the Chair to sign the attached letter continuing to advocate for the AOC to select the site offered by the Board.

Action to be taken following Board approval:
