Supervisor Briggs recommending the Board receive a presentation provided by representatives from the County of El Dorado's Elder Protection Unit as an overview of the programs and services that strive to protect and support elder and dependent adults throughout the County. (Est. Time: 20 Min.) This presentation is part of a series of scheduled presentations to the Board regarding the growing need for caregiver and support services for the elderly and dependent adults within our community, and the importance of the programs and services provided by County and private agencies that seek to educate, support and protect them.
