Supervisor Santiago recommending the Board adopt a Proclamation in tribute to Norma Gray in recognition of her many years of immeasurable service to the County and its citizens. (Est. Time: 15 Min.)

Norma Gray passed away suddenly on November 20th, 2010, after spending a day shopping with her family. She was born in Pocatello, Idaho in 1934, to James and Viola Waltman. When she was eight years old, her family moved to Los Angeles. Norma married Allen Gray in 1953. They had two daughters, Linda and Laurie, and moved to Placerville in 1963 where they were blessed with one more child, Larry, in 1967.

Norma has worked for the County of El Dorado since 1989, in the Elections Department and created an efficient, friendly and family-like environment in the office and maximized customer service. She was well respected and dearly loved. Norma will be truly missed by all.
