Recorder-Clerk-Registrar of Voters recommending the Board recognize September 23, 2014 as National Voter Registration Day.

Background

Americans will celebrate National Voter Registration Day, September 23, 2014. Many American miss the opportunity to vote because they are not registered by the deadline. October 20, 2014, is the deadline to register for the General Election to be held on November 4, 2014. Encourage your neighbors and friends to register to vote and participate in the democratic process.

Reason for Recommendation

The goal of National Voter Registration Day is to create awareness of elections by encouraging Americans to register to vote and come to the polls for every election.
