DEPARTMENT RECOMMENDATION

The District Attorney's Office recommends the Board approve the resolution to continue the funding for the Victim Compensation Claims program.

DISCUSSION / BACKGROUND

With funds made available through the California Victim Compensation Board (CalVCB) and in accordance with CalVCB Standard Agreement VC-7095 (reference Agenda File 14-0784, Version 2), the District Attorney's Office maintains a designated "Funeral Burial/Domestic Violence Revolving Fund" to pay emergency expenses for victims in the following categories: funeral/burial, relocation, crime scene clean-up and emergency losses.

With funds made available through CalVCB Standard Agreement VC-8046, the District Attorney's Office is provided grant funding to staff positions dedicated to processing payments for victims of crimes. This program provides funding for 1.0 FTE Victim Witness Claims Specialist, .80 FTE Office Assistant and .20 FTE Program Manager, as well as operating expenses.
