PRESENTATION of Certificates of Recognition by Supervisor Briggs to Kira Akers, Heather Wilson, Micaela Brewer, Kate Carruth, Natalie Bresnahan, Allyson Olson, Sara Wroblewski and Kylie Smith for receiving their Junior Bronze Awards in Girl Scout Troop 1480 in Cameron Park.

Supervisor Briggs recommending Certificates of Recognition to Kira Akers, Heather Wilson, Micaela Brewer, Kate Carruth, Natalie Bresnahan, Allyson Olson, Sara Wroblewski and Kylie Smith, members of Girl Scout Troop #1480 from Cameron Park, for receiving their Bronze Awards (the highest award presented to a Junior Girl Scout).

The Junior Girl Scouts project involved the collection and recycling of bottles/cans, earning money to buy needed items for the El Dorado County Animal Shelter. In addition, these eight members of Troop #1480 volunteered at the Animal Shelter, doing yard work and decorating the shelter for the May 2nd Adopt-aPet Day, each giving 15 hours of community service for their overall project.

Presentation of items to Linda Haller, El Dorado County Animal Control Officer.
