DISCUSSION / BACKGROUND:

Health and Human Services Agency (HHSA) oversees the local Foster Care and Adoption programs and helps place children into foster homes. Through collaboration with Lilliput (a part of Wayfinder), Stanford Sierra Youth & Families, Sierra Child and Family Services, and other private, non-profit adoption organizations, HHSA arranges for the permanent adoption of foster children.

During the period of October 1, 2019 through September 31, 2020, forty-one (41) children in El Dorado County were successfully placed into permanent homes and families through the adoption process and thirty-four (34) children were successfully adopted.

ALTERNATIVES:

The Board could decline to approve the Proclamation recognizing November 21, 2020 as “National Adoption Day.”
