DISCUSSION / BACKGROUND

Each year the American Probation and Parole Association (APPA) identifies one week in the month of July to acknowledge and highlight the work done by pretrial, probation, parole, and community corrections professionals and the impact and outcomes of the work they perform in detention institutions and in the community. This year, APPA has identified July 18 through 24 as Pretrial, Probation, and Parole Supervision Week.

APPA is an international association composed of members from the United States, Canada, and other countries actively involved with probation, parole, and community-based corrections, in both adult and juvenile sectors. All levels of government including local, state/provincial, legislative, executive, judicial, and federal agencies are counted among its constituents.

Probation Officers and the staff that support the mission of the Probation Department are dedicated public servants who identify with a distinctive professional tradition focused on the reduction of recidivism and promoting pro-social behaviors of individuals involved in the juvenile and criminal justice systems.

Probation professionals operate with a particular set of skills, experiences, and trainings that culminate in the delivery of a unique and necessary service designed to provide public protection and enhance the lives of families in the community.

For this reason the El Dorado County Probation Department would request the El Dorado County Board of Supervisors acknowledge by proclamation the week of July 18 through 24, 2021, as Pretrial, Probation, and Parole Supervision Week
